February 2[illegible], 1974

Dear Mrs. Glueck,
In looking over the Profile Sheets of the Cape Cod Gen. Soc., I note that you have information on THOMAS TARBELL of Watertown. -- Do your records include, or could you advise me as to where to search for ...

MARY TARBUL, m. May 25, 1743, at Tewksbury, Mass.;
Thomas Marshall.

Mary Marshall d. July 7, 1770, aged 46, at Tewksbury (Both above items from the published Vital Records of Tewksbury.) I have nothing further about either Thomas Marshall or his wife Mary Tarbul ... other than the fact that I descend through their son, Daniel Marshall, b. Nov. 9, 1752, at Tewksbury; m. Oct. 18, 1774, Sarah Patten, who was born Dec. 15, 1753, dau. of John Patten & (Mrs.) Mehitabel Patten who were married Dec. 16, 1746, all events at Tewksbury (and from the VR).

Of all the names on your Profile Sheet, the only one I am sure we share is Philip Sherman!
It would give me great pleasure to hear from you!

THE FAMILY RECORDS OF NATHANIEL THOMPSON AND HIS SON REV. OTIS THOMPSON.

Communicated by MISS ABBY LOUISE ALLEN.

Four time-worn pages are all that remains to-day of what was once the bible in which Nathaniel and Otis Thompson wrote their family records.

Nathaniel Thompson, who was born in Middleborough, Mass., in 1750, and died there eighty-three years later, was the original owner of the book and the earliest entries are all in his handwriting. He and his wife Hannah Thomas were both fourth in descent from Mayflower passengers. Nathaniel was the son of Caleb Thomson, of Middleborough, Mass., and his wife Abigail Crossman. Caleb was the son of Jacob Thomson, of Barnstable, Mass., whose father John Thomson married Mary, the daughter of Francis Cooke. Hannah Thomas, Nathaniel Thompson's wife, was the daughter of Noah Thomas, of Middleborough, Mass., and of Mary Alden. This Mary Alden was the great-grand-daughter of John Alden, the connection being through his son Joseph and his grandson John.

The bible passed from Nathaniel's hands into the possession of his oldest child and only son, Rev. Otis Thompson, who wrote, after his father's entries, the records of his own family. Otis graduated from Brown University in 1798. He later studied Divinity. As a minister he is chiefly identified with

p. 1/ The Torrey Families and their Children in America Vol. I Frederic C. Torrey 1924

Captain William ¹Torrey b. 1608 Eng.

The descendants of the Torrey brothers who landed in Boston from Eng. in 1640 have become a forceful body, eminent in the Church, in art, literature, the professions, manufacturing, merchandising, agriculture & other fields of industry.

95% of those bearing the name of Torrey are the descendants of one man, Philip Torrey who with his wife Alice Richards, lived in the parish of Combe St. Nicholas, Somersetshire, Eng. He died there 1621 & his wife about 1634. The family name is found variously spelled as Torrey, Torry, Tory, Torey, and Torrie. For uniformity the name is spelled "Torrey" in this book, except in verbatim copies of documents, irrespective of how it was spelled by the particular Torrey in question.

The desc. of Philip Torrey & Alice Richards may be consistently known as the MAIN BRANCH. Cradled in Plymouth, Mass. The Main Branch had spread well over the whole of that state before 1750. A goodly number had joined the various migrations to Conn., sev. branches rem. to VT., while one family located in Deer Isle, Maine, with 7 sons & each son the head of a large family, so speedily overflowed the little island that they soon scattered over the adjoining main land.

When the exodus of pioneers from N.E. flooded into N.Y. shortly before the Revolution, very many Torreys settled there, and the rush to the gold fields in the 19th century, filled the West with settlers by the name of Torrey. At present the Main Branch is to be found in greatest numbers in MA, N.Y. Cal. & Michigan where in the town of Flint, a Torrey reunion has been held annually for the past 20 years.

The greater part of the four hundred Torrey families in America who do not claim descent from Philip & Alice belong to a group which may be called the No. Carolina Branch, because they had their origin in a certain John Torrey, whose home seems to have been Paisley, Argyleshire, Scotland, & who is said to have come w/ 3 sons & 3 daus. to No. Car. about the yr. 1770, taking up residence near Fayetteville there. Most of the desc. of this branch are located in the Gulf States, especially Mississippi, where very few of the Main Branch are found.

A still smaller number of Torrey families have been traced back to a James Torrey with wives Elizabeth Peach & Catharine Niven (or Howell) who lived in Hopewell, Orange County, N.Y. and who seems to be connected with several otherwise detached Torreys of earlier date resident in N.Y. City. This is called the N.Y. Branch.

Finally there was a James Torrey from Aberdeen Scotland, who fought on the British side in the Rev. War in the 71st (Scottish) Reg't., & who settled w/ his wife Christine Kirk in Nova Scotia in the latter part of the 18th century, a very few of whose desc. may be found scattered through the U.S. This branch is known as the Nova Scotia Branch.

Philip Torrey, whose wife was Alice Richards, mentions in his will, "my father, William Torrey."

[X] William Torrey, wife Thomasyne ———, died 1556-7 in Combe St. Nicolas, Eng. his will was dated Oct. 7, 1556 & proved June 18, 1557 & reads as follows:

"William Torrey of Combe Seynt Nicholas in the dioc. of Bathe and Welles. My body to be buried in the churchyard of Combe St. Nicholas. To the Church of St. Andrew in Welles twelve pence. To the Church of Combe St. Nicholas six shillings eight pence. To Elizabeth Scravyn x my servant x a chilver sheep. To John Morys my servant a chilver sheep. To every of my children ten sheep. To Alexander Nobyll twelve pence. The residue of my goodes not given nother bequeathed I give and bequeath to Thomasyn my wife, whom I make and ordain sole executrix. William Isollopp and Thomas Torrye two of the overseers."

[XX] William Torrey, wife ———

He is known only be being mentioned in the will of Henry Cookney, made May 13, 1593 & proved January 23, 1601, reading:

"Henry Cookney of Hawkchurch, Dorset. — To William, my son ten pounds and to Jone, my daughter, ten pounds. To Thomasine, my daughter, ten pounds, and a cow which is with her Uncle William. I do ordain Emmett, my wife, to be my whole executrix. Also I appoint my brothers Philip Torrey, * William Torrey, and John Cookney, overseers, and do give every one of them twelve pence apiece."

* It is very certain that the Philip Torrey mentioned in the above will of John Cookney, as brother of William Torrey, was the same Philip Torrey whose will was made Aug. 31, 1604 and proved Feb. 23, 1604, reading as follows:

"The last day of August 1604 Philip Torrey late of Wadbrooke in the parish of Hawkechurch, Dorset, husbandman &c. did make his will and testament nuncupative in this manner and form following, or the like in effect, viz. To his son William Torry he did bequeath ten young sheep and not any other chattel or goods whatsoever. He bequeathed all the rest of his goods to his wife Margaret and Dorothy his daughter. And last of all he appointed his forenamed son William Torry the sole executor of his last will and testament. Witnessed by Henry Holcombe & John Cookney" with others.

This Philip Torrey and son William whom he names in his will are the ones whom previous writers have stated with positiveness to be ancestors of ours, but this cannot be proven, and I think it unlikely. (See appendix).

I consider it very likely that this * William Torrey was the one mentioned in the will of our common English ancestor, Philip Torrey as "my father William Torrey" and also that he was son of William Torrey [X].

Philip Torrey, wife Alice Richards, m. Nov. 27, 1604 at ~~Pitminster~~ Pitminster, Somersetshire England.
He d. in 1621. Lived at Combe St. Nicholas, England; husbandman;
She was daughter of James Richards. Philip's will - dated 16 Apr. 1621; proved 27 June 1621

ch. A Anne b. ; m. Henry Dunster
B Mary b. ; d. bef 1634
C Sarah b.
1 William
2 James
3 Philip
4 Joseph

Bequests in Philip's will - dau. Anne three score pounds when aged 16 to be paid by my overseers who shall take charge of it until she is 21, also the biggest brass pan to be given her at time of her marriage & not before.

To my dau. Mary 20 pounds at 16 to be held as next before until she is 21, and the second brass pan.

To Sarah my dau. 3 & 30 pounds six shillings eight pence at age 16 and the second best brazen pot.

To James - 30 pounds at 16 as bef. & 1 silver spoon when he is 21 to Philip - 20 pounds at 16 " " & he shall be put an apprentice unto some trade as soon as he is able and also I do give him 1 silver spoon to be delivered when he is 21.

To William, the biggest brazen pot, the furnace kettle, the best table-board, the cupboard w/ this condition that his mother shall have the use of it so long as she is a widow & dwelling in my house.

To Joseph ten pounds.

All the rest to my wife whom I make sole executrix. My fa. Wm. Torrey, my cousin John Fry, John Richards, Robert Selleck & Thomas Lumbert to be overseers, and I give them five shillings apiece."

John Richards was his brother-in-law. John Fry m. his sister-in-law Dorothy Richards

Alice (Richards) Torrey made her will Apr. 24, 1634, date of probate unknown.

Three families living in or near Combe St. Nicholas bet. 1600 & 1640 by name - Combe, Fry and Richards have spec. interest to us through their relationship to our ancestor Philip Torrey.

Joseph Combe in his will dated 21 Mar. 1619/20 & proved 28 Apr. 1620, gives his residence as Combe St. Nicholas & names among others his bros. William & Edmund Combe, & Edward Rossiter, Joseph Greenfield, clerk, John Fry & his wife Winifred Rossiter (sister of Edward) & daus. Joan & Agnes both under 21. Dau. Agnes Combe later became 1st wife of William Torrey, 1, James Richards of Parish of Pitminster - fa. of Alice who m. Philip Torrey [XXX] and a son John called "cousin" by Philip Torrey, but not named in the will of his own sister Alice (Philip Torrey's wife) & this John Richards is called "brother-in-law" by one John Stone of whom nothing more is known. An unnamed dau. of James Richards, m. Thomas Lumbard who witnessed will of Philip Torrey & another dau. Dorothy m. "John Fry the younger."

P.4/ "John Fry the Elder" in his will made 13 Jan. 1618/19 + proved 31 Dec. 1618 by "John Fry, brother of the deceased," names his sister Maude Moeres + her ch. Margaret & Agnes; & Hugh son of Edward, Rossiter; also his brother John Fry (who calls himself "John Fry, the younger" in his own will); and cousin Joseph Combe; & Joseph Greenfield, vicar of Combe. He gives his home as Combe St. Nicholas.

There were also living near there two George Frys, an older one who witnessed the will of Joseph Combe in 1619-20 and a younger one who was b. about 1616 & who ♀ in same ship as Capt William^1 Torrey and was closely associated with him in this country. I have no doubt that the older ~~one~~ George Fry was father of the younger one & also of Elizabeth Fry, the 3rd wife of Capt. William^1 Torrey whose 2d wife d. in 1639.

In 1640 the family consisted of:

William aged 32, a widower of a year with 2 small boys - Samuel ae 8 & William ae 2 & his 3 unmarried bros, James ae 28, Philip ae 25 & Joseph ae 19.

Under these conditions it was deemed best to seek a new home beyond the sea; & there is reason to believe that Thomas Lombard husband of their aunt Dorothy Richards left for America a few years before, thus turning their thought in this direction. George Fry aged 58 yrs. or thereabouts - also ♀ in 1640 in same shipp to New England & settled in Weymouth in the County of Suffolk in N.E. - They were living in Boston in March 1623/4.

Capt. William's 2d wife was named Jane Haviland - they had 2 sons. The 4 brothers soon separated. Wm. made his home in Weymouth - James went to Scituate where he lived & died 1665. Philip went at once to Roxbury which he made his home. Philip had but 1 son who lived to maturity & he had but one son who married & he had but 1 son (of whom no information was found & there that line seems to end.

A ~~lone~~ gr. dau. of Philip, however, Abigail Davis married & through her have come a host of descendants of Philip under other names.

The 4th bro., Joseph, res. for a short time in Weymouth removed to Rehoboth, Mass. & from there to Newport, R.I. where he d. in 1626. He had 1 dau. who m. & had a family but the Torrey line ends w/ Joseph. Thus it will seem that all Torreys of the main line are descended from William of Weymouth & James of Scituate.

by the Miles Standish Monument Association of Duxbury (1923, see sketch following p. 24). The Colony records show that in 1636 he used the mark of a slit under the ear on his animals. In 1637 a highway was laid through his property at Jones River. In 1639 he was constable of Duxbury. He served as a grand juryman 1640-42, and was employed at surveying at various times. In 1643 and 1646 his name appeared on the list of freemen. He had an interest in the purchase of Dartmouth, Massachusetts, as shown in the account of the shareholders' meeting at Plymouth, 7 March 1652. Apparently his wife Tryphosa had died, and desiring to visit his native land and relatives at Great Yarmouth, he returned to England about 1653-4. He became ill there within a year and realizing that he would be unable to return to America he signed a power of attorney (see facsimile facing this page) which was the equivalent of a will. The text of this document reads as follows:

Caroline Miriam Petersen Reynolds, 84

WEST DENNIS — Caroline Miriam Petersen Reynolds, 84, of Sarasota, Fla., and West Dennis, died Monday at her daughter's home after a long illness.

She was the mother of Ann Treat Reynolds of West Dennis, and the wife of the late Ellsworth George Reynolds.

Mrs. Reynolds was born in Cohasset, the daughter of the late August F.B. Petersen and Miriam Crosby Treat Petersen. She spent most of her life in Scarsdale, N.Y., and summered for more than 50 years on Cape Cod.

Mrs. Reynolds was a direct descendant of Stephen Hopkins, Mayflower Compact signer, and Henry Samson, Mayflower passenger. She was also a direct descendant of Richard Treat, a member of Gov. Winthrop's Council; Gov. Robert Treat of Connecticut; the Rev. Samuel Treat of Eastham, known as the "Great White Father" to Nauset Indians; and the Rev. Treat's grandson, Robert Treat Paine, who was a Massachusetts signer of the Declaration of Independence.

Both sides of her family included many generations of Cape Cod seafarers, her grandfather having sailed many times around Cape Horn on the bark White Cloud, and her great-grandfather, David Newcomb of Provincetown, was the keeper for many years of the Long Point Light.

Mrs. Reynolds was a graduate of Cohasset High School, Dean Academy of Franklin and the Hickox School of Boston. She also attended Wheaton College in Norton. She completed her education at the Eastman School of Music in Rochester, N.Y., entering as the first student in September 1921. She studied organ, piano and voice, and later sang in the American Opera Company.

She was secretary to the late well-known author and travel reporter Lowell Thomas, and was also secretary to Bishop and Mrs. Frederick B. Fisher.

A member of the National Society of Daughters of the American Revolution, Mrs. Reynolds was the vice-regent of the society's Harvey Birch chapter of Scarsdale, N.Y., and a member of the Massachusetts Society of Mayflower Descendants; the Old Plymouth Colony Descendants; and a charter member of the Dennis Historical Society.

She was the president of the Westchester County Wheaton College Club; a member of the Scarsdale Art Association; the Sarasota (Fla.) Opera Society; the Friends of the Selby Library and Selby Gardens; and the Audubon Society.

She was a member of the Episcopal Church of the Redeemer in Sarasota.

Private graveside services were last week in the South Dennis Cemetery. Family and friends are invited to a memorial concert at 2 p.m. March 24 in the South Dennis Congregational Church on Main Street, South Dennis. Hospice of Cape Cod will also be honored during this service.

Donations in Mrs. Reynolds' memory may be sent to the Hospice Association of Cape Cod, 911 Main St., Osterville, Mass. 02655.

Tuck Genealogy - Robert Tuck of Hampton, N.H. & His Desc. 1638-1877
(Joseph Dow - 1877)

Robert¹ Came from Gorlston, a seaboard town in the Northeasterly part of the County of Suffolk, Eng., bordering upon the County of Norfolk, from which latter county came many of the early settlers of Hampton - the Dows, Moultons, Pages and others.

Robert¹ Tuck - b. Eng.; d. intestate 4 Oct. 1664
adm. gr. to wid. Joanna & son-in-law John Sanborne
Inv. of est. 17 Nov. 1664 £385. 17s. 2d.

& to NE in 1636, or a little earlier, & lived awhile in Watertown near Boston, and in Salem. In 1638, he was a petitioner (with others) to the General Court at Boston, for leave to settle at Winnacunnet (Hampton). The petition was granted early in September, and a settlement was begun by some of the grantees the same autumn. Others appear to have waited till the spring following. According to tradition, Robert Tuck was of the former number.

On the 7th of September 1639 he was made freeman. the dwelling house located near the southeasterly corner of the lot between the two roads - one leading to Hampton Falls & the other to North Hampton, was conveniently situated for a public house, & was for many years kept as such, it being the earliest public house in the town.

After res. in Hampton 15 yrs. or more, Goodman Tuck had occasion to visit England on business, to be gone a yr. & perh. longer. While gone, the keeping of the ordinary was necessarily given up by his family. On his return he resumed his former business without waiting for the sitting of the Court & renewal of his license, for which he was fined £5 later reduced to £2. From his occupation as a seller of wines Goodman Tuck was appropriately styled "vintner." By trade he was a tailor, but no evidence that he worked at his trade after coming to NE. He was also styled "chirurgeon", a term formerly used to denote a person whose profession was "to heal diseases by manual operations, instruments, or external applications.

Robert sometimes held town offices; - Selectman in 1648, 49, 52 & 57. app'd. Town Clerk 16: 1 mo. (March): 1647 which office he held till 15 May 1650 (3 yrs. & 2 months) At the County Court held 2: 8 mo. (Oct.) 1649, he was app'd. "ye clarke of ye writts for

Will Aug. 26, 1691, proved Sept. 20, 1692. daughter Ann, whom Windsor in his "History of Duxbury" says married John (evidently an error). Windsor also the will, in which is mentioned "gr n Tisdell for use of his mother Ann " to John (3) Rogers, who had a Hannah, born Nov. 16, 1668, but Tisdale and Hannah, or Anna, were married Nov. 23, 1664, this is plainly an error. By John Tisdale's will the large real estate was given almost wholly to his sons but a controversy arose between several of the sons-in-law with references to the division of the property, which, "1 November, 1676", resulted in decrees of administration being "granted joyntly unto John Tisdale's sons, John, James, Joshua, and Joseph, to administer the estate of John Tisdale, Sr." This was settled in 1677, the eldest son taking a double portion, and the residue being equally divided among the sons and daughters.

Will of John Tisdale, Sr.

Taunton (1675)

I, John Tisdale, Sr., of Taunton, being sick and weak yet of perfect memory, doe dispose of my estate as followeth:-

I give to my eldest son, John Tisdale, all my tract of land on the east side of Taunton River, bound on the south by Meadow Brook, on the north by Stone Bridge Brook, on the west by the Great River and highway and on the common on the east, with the housin that is on it to him and his heirs forever, being six score acres, more or less.

Also to James Tisdale, land on which his house stands and about five acres east of Great River, and four lying by Stone Bridge, and also land called new lot, west of Great River (six acres) only the mowing meadow that is init his mother shall enjoy while she lives, and also my lot at Swansey and my meadow at Sakegegunsett [Segreganser ?], and my share in Iron Works after the death of his mother.

Also, I give to my son Joshua Tisdale, my share of land at Assonett and the meadow that appertaineth to it and my two acres of meadow in Assonett lying near John Hathaways house.

Also to my son, Joseph Tisdale, the house I now live in and the housin about it, and the lands and meadows adjoining to it, and the old orchard with the two acres of land that joynes it, and three acres of swamp lying by James Burte's land and my Apes meadows with two acres of land on the west side of it, to him and his heirs forever, but Joseph shall help Joshua to build for him as good a house as that I now live in.

To my daughter Elizabeth 5 pounds.

To my daughter Sarah, 5 pounds, of which she has received 300 of iron. for that there is but 5 shillings due.

To my daughter, Mary, my share in North purchase and my lot at Rumford.

To my daughter, Abigail, my land on northwest side of Three Mile River. To my grandchild, John Tisdale, 30 acres of land on southeast side of Apes meadow, and the remainder of my estate wholly to my wife as my sole executor.

The "Old Man of Joshua's Mountain", from a photograph taken in 1920. This profile rock formation is located in Assonet Village, Freetown, Mass., on original lot No. 23 in the "Freeman's Purchase at Taunton River", first owned by John Tisdale, of Marshfield, later of Taunton. He married Sarah Walker, of Taunton, probably sister of Philip Walker and niece of Mr. John Browne of Rehoboth and Swansea.

John Tisdale was killed by the Indians at Taunton in June 1675. They also burned his house and carried away his gun, which was recovered from them at Rehoboth on 1 Aug. 1675. After his death, Joshua, the third son, settled on this lot at Assonet, and it is from him that the so-called mountain derived its name. See pages 85 and 88.

About ten years ago this photograph was reproduced and widely circulated in New Hampshire, with the statement that it was a picture of a profile rock located in that state.

(Source 22) He settled first at Duxbury where he had a 10 acre grant at Green Harbor path; listed under "Duxborrow, 1643" in a "list of those able to beer arms in New Plymouth"; elected constable of "Duxborrow 4 June 1645"; 1 June 1647 "John Tysdell appointed to the Grand Enquest." (Source 23) Removed to Taunton, Mass. abt. 1650; his home was on east side of Great River some 3½ mi. from "the Green" & overlooked Mount Hope, the home of King Philip. He also owned land at Hounds ditch & Namasakeeset, the sale of which to Wm. Brett in 1657 is duly noted in Colonial records; constable 1659. He was one of the 26 original purchasers of Freetown & rec'd. the 23d lot upon which a part of Assonet Village is located; also possessed considerable land in Taunton. Selectman from 1672 until his death.

The family name is of ancient date - kn. in England early in 16th century and was rendered in various ways - now almost universally kn. as "Tisdale." The origin has been ascribed to a connection with River Tees, a stream of some magnitude rising in the north of England. Along its border for many miles this river is beautifully skirted with what are called "dale lands," hence as tradition goes, the creation of the name "Teesdale."

Eng. Tisdales have been represented as rigid Churchmen during the civil war in England, opposing the Protector & warmly devoted to the Crown. The origin of their arms, beyond a doubt, may be traced to the fact that King Charles II granted arms to many families who aided in the overthrow of Cromwell, or assisted in the Restoration.

Tupper reunion at Sandwich

SANDWICH — The annual meeting of the directors of the Tupper Family Association of America was held in the Sandwich Town Hall. Members attended from Massachusetts, Connecticut, Maine and New York.

Reports were presented on the progress of the new genealogical book on the Tupper family which is expected to be ready for publication and distribution in about six months.

The Glass Museum of Sandwich was presented numerous historical Tupper documents and momentoes to be added to the Tupper display on exhibit in the museum in Sandwich.

The group visited the Tupper site where the original homestead stood from 1637 until it burned in 1921.

A large boulder with the Tupper plaque was placed, in 1939, to mark the spot. The grounds are maintained as a park for visitors.

Cataumet church: 1675

By RICHARD FOX

CATAUMET — The Cataumet Methodist Church, located on one of the highest points in this village of Bourne and overlooking the waters of Buzzards Bay is one of the older buildings on Cape Cod.

It was first constructed in Bournedale in 1675 in an attempt to Christianize the Indians, but the Indians refused the ministering of Rev. Tupper assigned to the task and the building was removed to Cataumet.

It was in 1779 that the building was dismantled and moved, piece by piece to the Old Cataumet Cemetery and it became the place of worship of the farming and sea-faring residents of the area.

Prior to the old records of 1890, listed among the communicants were the names of Swift, Nye, Phinney, and Landers, all still familiar today.

In 1822, the church was called the Reformed Methodist Church and 13 years later was changed to the Protestant Methodist Church. It was during these years that the church was repaired and a bell set in the belfry.

In the year 1893, the church was in need of additional repair and additional space, so it was moved across County Road to its present location, overlooking the Cataumet Cemetery.

The building was raised to provide a vestry, kitchen and parlor and was furnished with new carpets and pews, Bibles and hymnals. The first service was held at the present site on May 17, 1894.

In the "Portland Gale" of the winter of 1898, the steeple of the church was blown off and a new belfry built and the bell rehung in August of that year. About 1918, electric lights were added.

Burying Hill

Walkers traveling from Bournedale or along the Scenic Highway may find the location of the first meeting house for Indians established on what was known as Burying Hill by Sandwich settlers and preachers Richard Bourne and Thomas Tupper in 1637,

Library gets Tupper book

SANDWICH — The Sandwich Public Library was presented with a copy of the new edition of the Tupper family genealogy by the Tupper Family Association and whose board members held their annual meeting in Sandwich Town Hall.

Thomas Tupper was one of the "Ten Men From Saugus" whose names are inscribed on the wall in the Town Hall and who were the early settlers in Sandwich in 1637. Thomas Tupper, a pioneer from England was a Founder of Sandwich, Judge, and Minister and the Ancestor of the Tupper Family in America.

The Tupper homestead was one of the oldest houses on Cape Cod, dating back to 1637 until the tragic fire in 1921 when it was burned to the ground.

A bronze memorial tablet on a huge local boulder now marks the place on Tupper Road where the Tupper homestead originally stood. Each year members of Thomas Tupper's descendants gather at this Memorial Boulder.

The new edition of the Tupper Family Genealogy contains over 15,000 names and is over 900 pages covering the entire United States and many foreign apparently he was pastor of the church at Bury (Sussex Co.) Eng.

4 June 1650 - "Tho Tupper deputed by the Court to marry in Towne of Sandwidge"

The name Tupper came from tup or tupp (a male sheep or ram) - a breeder of tups or rams, a tupman or tuper (various spellings) & finally - tuppers. The original home of the Tuppers, a group of families, was on the fringe of the South Downs in West Sussex, overlooking the Isle of Wight.

Thomas Tupper was apprenticed to Thomas Hampton, cordwainer, from 1592-1599, & learned the trade. About 1621 he went to W. Indies (w/Capt. Wm. Pierce) & on the voyage learned craft of carpentry; again, in 1624, he came to No. America (w/Capt. L. Griffin) & remained in N.E. more than a yr & ret'd. to port of Gravesend; made 3d voyage in 1631 (w/Capt. John Pierce) from London to Cape Ann; it is not kn. when he ret'd. to England. Perhaps made his 4th trip on the "Abigail" 1635, w/12 yr. old dau. & 2 yr. old son. At Lynn, Mass. until 1637 & then came to Sandwich, Mass. His was the first house built there, 1637; it burned in 1921. He became an outstanding citizen & developed exceptional ability; served in the Gen. Court, 1644; deputy for 20 yrs. from 1647-1667; was on juries, local boards & commissions & a charter member of the church. For 3 yrs. from 1667, he was Sel. of the town, retiring when he was over 90 yrs. old. In later yrs. he was layman preacher, deeply interested in religious work among Indians. He was a shrewd trader; had large real estate holdings at time of death. (In 1658 he & son Thomas were among largest landowners & taxpayers in Sandwich.)

HERE LYES BURIED
the BODY OF M^{r}
MOSES TYLER WHO DIED OCtoBER y^{e} 2nd
1727 & IN the
86 YEaR OF HIS AGE

It had been suggested that the progenitor of so many thousand men and women covering the greater part of three centuries, which have passed since the early voyager set his foot (the first permanent one) upon Andover soil, should be honored by some fitting monument, since none was in existence. Accordingly in response to written appeal, numbers of the clan joined their "mites" to thus honor their forebear and the memorial was dedicated at the 6th Tyler Reunion, Sept. 4, 1901. The spot selected was beside the grave of the immigrant's eldest son, Moses, whose ancient slate slab, with its legend of "1727" has survived with wonderful completeness. Here under a giant evergreen, upon a cubic yard of cement and cobblestones which was brought just to the surface of the ground, was placed a large hard-grained boulder, brought from the old Tyler farm (now known as the Woods place) 4 miles distant in West Boxford, a homestead which has known Tyler blood and heirship uninterruptedly from the first generation, when it was acquired from the Indians, to the present day.

Upon the boulder was securely riveted a bronze tablet, cast in Boston, which bears the following legend:

R.I. ([illegible])

The name of Job Tyler is found among inhabitants admitted to town of Newport "since the 20th day of the 3rd month, 1638" (source 14). He was in Andover abt. 1639; later in Roxbury abt. 1646; in Andover again 1650; driven by the Indians he ret'd. to Roxbury again 1665; in Mendon in 1669; in Rowley Village in that part now called Boxford in 1680; but in 1688, 1689, 1691 & 1695 he was paying minister's rates in Mendon.

He was a true desc. of that primal, irrepressible family rebel Wat Tylor, "Kentish man" of England; "he was a rude, self-asserting, striking personality, not to be left out of account in the forces which were to possess the land." He did not"learn prudence very fast . . . . superstitious, wilful, hot-tempered, independent and self-reliant . . . . he did not have saints to live with, were all the truth known, it would be seen that he was on a par with a large proportion of his neighbors." He had a good deal of individuality and he gave utter-to it at times with more vigor than grace. He did not shape his words to suit sensitive ears; he resented dictation and found it hard to restrain himself from what he wanted to do through any prudential policy. In a deposition of 1659, Job stated his age as "about 40 yeares." His will was probated in 1700. Inventory of his estate amounted to £813.
His wife Mary was dismissed to the church in "Mendham" from the church in Roxbury, on the 28th day of 3rd mo. (May) 1665, and "next Sunday had John & Samuel baptized there.

The Tyler homestead came within that part of ancient Rowley, known as "Rowley Village." The main settlement of Rowley Village was in the present village of Old Boxford, while Moses' homestead was within that portion incorporated 28 June 1735 into the new West Boxford. There were continuously male Tylers here, from Moses' arrival in 1666 to the time of death of the late Phineas Tyler 1885; while the blood, through intermarriage, is yet abundant. From Salem deeds, we know that Moses was a large landed proprietor, frequently acquiring, seldom parting with real estate. In 1699, Nov. 25, he bought of Nathan Stevens, of Andover, 5 acres meadow and upland, and thus became owner of a sawmill. He was a Quartermaster; became freeman Oct. 1690; was affiliated with the church in Andover.

In 1718 Moses deeded to son-in-law, Ebenezer Stevens (husband of step-dau. Sara Sprague) "shoe meadow" a valuable tract of Old Tyler Boxford homestead. The step-daus. were often erroneously recorded as Moses' own daus. as evidenced by the withcraft proceedings, wherein one is designated as "Martha Tyler, alias Sprague" and in Andover records when "Martha" m. 5 June 1701, Richard Friend, seaman of Salem, she married as a "Tyler."

TYLER

WILL OF MOSES^{2} TYLER

Probated at Salem, Mass., 13 Oct. 1727 - case 28452. No Inventory.

"I, Moses Tyler of Andover, in the County of Essex and Province of Massachusetts Bay in New England, husbandman, being at present of sound mind and memory, but considering my mortality, have thought meet to make this my last will and testament.

"And first of all, I commit my soul into the hands of God, who gave it, and my body I commit to the earth in hope of a blessed resurrection at the last day, through the merits of my Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ;--and, as for my worldly estate, which God has given me, I give and dispose of the same in manner following.

"As for my sons, Moses, John, Ebenezer, Job, Jonathan, James and Joshua, I have formally given them their full portions out of my estate, according to my ability. Also, I give to my six sons, first mentioned, ten pounds apiece, and to my son Joshua the last mentioned, twenty pounds, all which sums are to be paid by my executor in the space of eight years after my decease, and he shall be obliged to pay but ten pounds a year, and shall pay the younger before the elder.

"I give to my son Jacob all my homestead in Andover and my dwelling house, with all my other buildings, that are upon said homestead, and all my meadows, in Andover, and all my stock of cattle and sheep and swine and household goods, and other moveables. Excepting so much of my household goods, which my second wife brought to me, as shall be left at my decease, which shall be equally divided between my son Jacob and his three sisters, Martha, Katherine and Sarah, and the children of his sisters, Joanna and Abagail, deceased; the children of each sister to have one share, and my son Jacob shall have the choice of the beds and furniture thereof that was his mothers; and if my son Jacob shall die without issue lawfully begotten, then the lands, which I have given him in this my will, shall be equally divided among my other sons. And I do hereby constitute, make and ordain my son Jacob the sole executor of this my last will and testament, and if there is any part of my real or personal estate, that I have not disposed (of) in this my last will and testament, I give it to my said executor, and I do hereby revoke and disannul all and every other will and testament by me made.

"Rectifying and confirming this and no other to be my last will and testament.

"In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal this ninth day of April, Anno Domini, 1725, and in the eleventh year of the reign of our Sovereign Lord, George of England, Scotland, France and Ireland, King, &c.

(Signed) MOSES TYLER. (Seal.)

"Signed, sealed and delivered by the said Moses Tyler to be his last will and testament in presence of us the subscribers.

VINCENT

There is a "Vincent Family Letter" published by Mrs. Katharine R. Vincent, Editor. Her address is 728 Robinson St., Elmira, New York - 14904. It was through reading the issues turned over to our president, Jane Mercier, that I obtained lots of information on the descendants of John Vincent but no vital records on John^1 himself. The Notes from Goodwin's Pilgrim Republic" , Frederick Freeman's "History of Cape Cod" & "Plymouth Colony Records" were also printed in one of the issues (Vol. V No. 4, p. 1) and had been furnished the editor by Jane Mercier.

From Vol. IV No. 2 - August 1978 - p. 3 is the following:

AMONG THE FIRST OF THE NAME OF VINCENT IN AMERICA

Adrian Vincent - came to America in the "Mary & John", from London to New England, in 1634.

Humphrey Vincent - was living at Cambridge, Mass. in 1634 and Ipswich in 1638/ Died 3 Dec. 1664.

Philip Vincent - a desc. of the Yorkshire branch. In N.E. a brief time only, about 1635.

William Vincent - (or Vinson) of Salem & Gloucester, Mass. about 1635. [other mention of him is given as "freeman in the latter place in 1643; m. 1 - Sarah ? ; m. 2 - widow Rachel Cooke]

Henry Vincent - of James County, Va. in 1635.

Thomas Vincent - of Accomack County, Va. in 1636.

Thomas Vincent - of New Norfolk County, Va. in 1637.

William Vinson - of the Isle of Wight Co., Va. 1637.

? 1637 In Duxbury 1637 & Sandwich 1637

John Vincent - of Lynn, Mass., before 1639; removed then to Sandwich, same Colony. [I question the words "same Colony" - unless there is an omission here. How about his land in Duxbury before removing to Sandwich and then Yarmouth? Believe Lynn was considered Mass. Bay Colony.]

John Vincent - of New Haven, Ct., in 1639; was father of Hannah and John by his wife Rebecca. Son John believed to have died young.

William Vincent - of New London, Ct., in 1651; rem. shortly after to Rhode Island.

Elyas Vincent - of Virginia.

Philip Vincent - of Virginia in 1652.

James Vincent - of Northumberland Co., Va., in 1653.

John Vinson - of Weymouth, Mass., before 1675.

Nicholas Vincent - of Manchester, Mass., in 1679.

70	Vincent, Adrian	--	London	New England	24 Mar. 1633	"Mary & John" of London (Robert Sayres)
86	Vincent, Sarah	--	m. to Degory Priest of Leyden 4 Nov. 1611, was widow of John Vincent of London. She m.2nd [sic] in Leyden 13 Nov. 1621 Goddard Godbert and is there called Sarah Allerton, widow of Degory Priest. She prob. was a relative of Isaac Allerton who was also m. 4 Nov. 1611 (to Mary Norris of Newbury England).

108	Vincent, Edward	18	Gravesend	Bormoodes or Somer Islands	10 June 1635	"Truelove" (Robert Dennis)
110	Vincent, Ezia	30	Gravesend	Bormoodes	Sept.1635	"Dorset" (John Flower)

You can take your choice as to the spelling for Sarah Allerton Vincent Priest's third husband's name - Cuthbert Cuthbertson, Godbert Godbertson, Goddard Godbert, or whatever. I am still wondering whether her first husband died in Leyden or London. Furthermore, if she and her third husband came over to Plymouth [1623] and died in 1633, how did John Vincent live neighbor to them in Sandwich, if he didn't move there until after 1637? It is quite a puzzle!

Although the last listing above does not give the ship that Sarah and her husband came over on, I have found in "A Brief History of the Pilgrims" (taken from Bradford's and Winslow's Own Writings) a listing of passengers on the "Anne" & "Little James" - the ships arriving within about 10 days of each other in summer of 1623. The "Anne" arrived first and the "Little James" following. The list of passengers is given alphabetically in one list for the 2 ships. Their listing says "Cuthbert Cuthbertson, wife and four children."

From "Families of the Pilgrims" (compiled by Hubert Kinney Shaw and published by the Mass. Soc. of Mayflower Descendants - 1955) I have found the following items:

Under information on Isaac Allerton - "He was one of the three upon whom the privilege of citizenship was conferred by the city of Leyden, his associates in this honor, which was given Feb. 5, 1614, being [Gov.] William Bradford and Degory Priest, his brother-in-law". When Isaac, his 1st wife Mary and their 3 older ch. came over in the "Mayflower" dau. Sarah stayed in Holland with her aunt Sarah Priest. According to Bradford's writing of the early deaths of Mayflower passengers - Digerie Priest was included in the statement "All these dyed sone after their arivall, in the generall sickness that befell. But Digerie Priest had his wife and children sent hither afterwards, she being Mr. Allerton's sister."

Degory & Sarah Priest had two daughters - Mary and Sarah. I believe they were 2 of the 4 children listed as coming over with Cuthbert Cuthbertson, and his wife. Sarah^2 Allerton may have been one of the four; and the fourth may have been a child of Sarah's by her first or third husband. I have not been able yet to find this out.

was not included, which may indicate he had lands in Yarmouth. There are no vital statistics of John Vincent in Sandwich Town records.

Henry Vincent appears in Sandwich by 1657 when he took the oath of fidelity.

All further records of John & Henry appear in Yarmouth.

NOTE: I see by my records from other members that the date on some of the above differ, especially in the case of Philip^3 (Henry^2, John^1). Also this record has two more children, with one born 1709. Can anyone help us to find the correct information? Editor - Katharine R. Vincent - "VINCENT FAMILY LETTERS"

Dear Margaret,

I wrote you two years ago regarding John Vincent of Sandwich, in the search for whom his parents might have been. You replied at that time that you had found he had a wife Hannah and that the information was contained in Vol. 12 of Torrey's N.E. Marriages.

Well, after two years I finally got my hands on the microfilm of Vol. 12, and found much to my disappointment that there was no name at all of John's wife. The only two listed were John Vincent of Sandwich, whose first child was born in 1633, and John Vincent of New Haven who married Rebecca_______and whose first child was born 1639.

If you are "still fooling around" with this infectious hobby of ancestor hunting, I would appreciate it if you could check to see if you had some other source other than Torrey for his wife's name of Hannah.

Sincerely,

Audrey

Dear Mr. Lovell,

First, let me apologize for the delay in not thanking you sooner for the research you did for me in your letter of 20 November. I very much appreciated it because data on John Vincent is so sketchy and you filled in a lot of the gaps. The biggest ones of course are where he himself originates from. I am convinced he is the son of Sarah Allertom (the dates match) and John had a daughter Sarah also. Since Allerton's husband was also named John Vincent the conjecture is easy to come by. But how to prove it?

Lydia Brownson, many years ago, listed Sarah Vincent as his daughter. Sarah married William Dexter, son of the early settler Thomas Dexter, or "Farmer" Dexter, as they called him. My research hints that John Vincent lived neighboring Sarah Allerton Cuthbertson, which is another indication they might be related. If you have any further data on the home of Sarah Cuthbertson and that of John Vincent, it might help fit the pieces of the puzzle.

To answer your question, I am a descendant of Sarah Vincent and William Dexter, but unfortunately have not been able to obtain or even find any family records. My proofs have come from published works, mostly from the New England Historical Society's Records. I am even now trying to find out Lydia Brownson's sources.

I am enclosing an envelope for your use just in case you do find aomething of interest on Sarah Allerton that could help tie this all together.

And I thank you again,

From Goodwin's "Pilgrim Republic" - Sarah Allerton, sister of Isaac Allerton,

m. 1 - John Vincent at Leyden, Holland. He died before 1611 when Sarah m. 2 Digory Priest (who died in Plymouth 1621) and m. 3 Cuthbert Cuthbertson. They came to Plymouth, where they both d. in 1633.

From Frederick Freeman's "History of Cape Cod" & "Plymouth Colony Records" - John Vincent was of Saugus (Lynn) but was granted lands in Duxbury (nr. Plymouth) and made freeman 1637. His Duxbury land abutted the lands of Thomas Burgess & William Bassett, both early settlers of Sandwich, where John Vincent was appointed constable in 1638. 1639 he sold his Duxbury land to Thomas Weybourne and was deputy to Plymouth Court from Sandwich. In 1639 also, he was appointed to go to Yarmouth to aid in establishing land rights. In 1658 he was one of a committee to write down the bounds of each man's land. However his land was not included, which may indicate he had lands in Yarmouth. There are no vital records of John Vincent in Sandwich Twn. Rec. His son Henry[2] appeared in Sandwich by 1657 when he took the oath of fidelity. All further records of John & Henry appear in Yarmouth.
